A SWIMMER'S CLOSE CALL.

DEATH DOGGEDLY AWAIT.

Ready? Of course we're ready; have been in signal shape for weeks past in every department, but you know about how much interest you have had to spring suits during these cold, wintry days. What's the use of trying to make a sale hungry for Spring Suits and Light-weight Overcoats when he can hardly keep comfortably warm in his Fur-Trimmed Ulster?

Arrangements are now complete for a change—a radical, positive, pleasing change. Easter Sunday is already near at hand, "the flowers that bloom in the Spring, tra, la," etc., are getting ready to bloom. Our store is so close, fresh, and sweet in every nook and corner as a ball of roses, and we're just aching to show you the good things prepared for you and your boys.

MR. F. S. CHITTENDEN, the Manager of our Hat and Children's Department, never was so enthusiastic about the trade. He says we can please the very best trade in Chicago this season, as never before. The fact is, our $10 Suits, Knee Pant Suits, Boys' Long Pant Suits, Juvenile Spring Overcoats, $5, etc., are so nicely assorted and naturally attractive that you can't help being suited.

MR. JAMES H. HAMMILL, Manager of our Cloth Hatters, and most important Department of all, where the men drop are dressed, feels that our Spring Overcoats, Hats, and Fancy Goods are really unrivaled, and with an abundance of these particular WINNERS, FIRST & 10, garments, which we recommend above all others, you can be suited here if ever you can suit him.

MR. F. W. WEBB, Manager of our Furnishing Department, is confident in his stores over our splendid preparations of Easter Neckwear and Furnishing Goods of every desirable kind. His sentiment here could we can give you in this large department for a very little money.

MR. A. C. HOWELL, Manager of our Tailoring Department, thinks his stock "Unto the (1) most." We get these goods right from the factories and know no one else can make—with one all realized it so nicely—many $5.

A man was saying the other day, "one is the Finest Clothing Store in Chicago." We don't and we don't wouldn't be one—but come in and see what you think about it, will you?

THE VILLAGE BLACKSMITH.

Under a spreading chestnut tree
The village blacksmith stands,
And in a sinewy hands he
Would wash his dusky hands.
For something else than water there
His every pore demands.

Week in, week out, from morn till night,
You might have noticed, I vow,
How I am given him a sight
Of brawn than, which, by!
Full more than honest thanks of his
Were spoken at the store.

And when he was accused he grew
With wonder to did note
That on the scene's modern date
The charming bar did float,
As serene upon a sofitil lake
A great white fairy boat.

"Thanks, thanks," said he, "my worthy friend,
For this which thou has brought;
No village blacksmith should forget
The debt this ivory thing has taught;
For hands like mine it is the best
That can be found or bought."

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps said represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory'," they ARE NOT, but the all insinuation, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

"PAIES COST FORMED FRANCINE WAS THE ONES COST THEIR!"

REAL VALUE FOR A FAIR PRICE: Those few minutes, on all purchases [illegible] manufacturers have. A permanent demand for sporting goods is one of the results.

White Cloud, the Manhattan Fishing Rod, will go on sliding now [illegible] keeping the oil same long after weak bamboos have been forgotten.

White Cloud is 100% Pure.

Their statements in large but absolutely true. White Cloud is an [illegible] piece of Rod; it weighs 12 ounces, just what it is said to weigh, while those are unknown White Rods called three-quarter ounce that tip the scales at any ascertained notch from 13 down to half that.

Remember this: White Cloud will do everything claimed by those wonderful substitutes and much more. It really is what they falsely pretend to be.

WHITE CLOUD IS THE CHIEF

Of all White Rods. Take no other from your grocer.
